DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the first and second magnets presenting a smooth curve adjacent the hinge axis (as set forth in claim 16) must be shown or the features canceled from the claims. No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show the first and second magnets presenting a smooth curve adjacent the hinge axis as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 26 is objected to because of the following informality: in line 2 of claim 26, "increases" should read -- increase --. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As a result of using "means to", claim 18 fails to meet the 3-prong analysis of a "means plus function" claim set forth in the "Supplemental Examination Guidelines" effective June 21,

Art Unit: 3727

2000 and published in the Official Gazette on July 25, 2000. If applicant desires to invoke 35 USC 112, 6th paragraph, applicant must either modify the claim to include the phrase "means for" or show that even though the phrase "means for" is not used, the claim limitation is written as a function to be performed and does not recite sufficient structure, material, or acts which would preclude application of 35 USC 112, 6th paragraph.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-4,6-14,17-21 and 23-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Feldhahn (US 3,152,716).

Feldhahn teaches a magnetic hinge comprising a first plate and associated at least one first magnet 25 and a second plate and associated at least one second magnet 26.

Regarding claims 9 and 10, the hinge is either stationary or relocated during pivoting depending upon the force used by the user to open the container.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1-14,17-22,24-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kamen (US 5,135,012) in view of Feldhahn.

Art Unit: 3727

The embodiments of figures 7 -9 of Kamen each teach a hingeless cosmetic container having first and second magnets extending along a length of respective first and second plates. Viewing figure 9, the first magnet 468 and second magnet 470 attached to peripheral edges of respective first and second plates maintain the container in a closed position. Kamen is silent regarding pivoting the first and second plates to form a hinge.

Feldhahn teaches a container having a magnetic hinge along one edge of the container.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the teaching of pivoting along one edge of the container to the container of Kamen. Doing so allows the first and second plates of the hinge to remain in close proximity due to the magnetic attraction of the magnets, and avoids separation of the container parts while in the open configuration.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 15, 16, and 29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but appear to be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Rivers et al. teaches a container and lid magnetically attached thereto.

11. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (703) 305-3579. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

Art Unit: 3727

12. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number (703) 305-3579 on the date shown below:

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate
